

Exploring the OT Toolbox:

Integrating the evidence into the clinical reasoning process for complex paediatric developmental caseloads

Expression of Interest Sought
Semester 2, 2010

This workshop will guide clinicians through the clinical reasoning process of translating research knowledge into family-centred practice. This workshop will consider the evidence with regard to various clinical intervention models and techniques that Occupational therapists utilise as part of their —toolbox.

More Information Coming Soon
Check back at a later date